

John Schmieder

- President of the Acupuncture Association of MO
- MO State Licensed in Acupuncture
- Diplomate of Acupuncture and Chinese Herbal Medicine , NCCAOM
- Masters of Arts of Oriental Medicine

John is co-owner of Community Acupuncture and a skilled Acupuncturist. He has a wide variety of clients and an ability to put new patients at ease. John brings his years of experience as a financial analyst to the business of making high quality Acupuncture affordable. In addition, John serves as President of the Acupuncture Association of Missouri. As President, he strives to offer networking and continuing professional education opportunities to practitioners, and to educate the general public about the value of Acupuncture and Oriental medicine.